

第23回

折紙探偵団コンベンション

The 23rd Origami Tanteidan Convention

The Origami Tanteidan Convention is the yearly gathering of members of the Japan Origami Academic Society (JOAS).

•Dates: August 11-13, 2017

•Place: The University of Tokyo (1-1-1, Yayoi, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo)

•Events and Features: Special lectures, About 100 classes from simple to complex, Convention Book vol.23 (optional), Reception dinner (optional), Exhibition by participants and guests, 11th JOAS Origami Competition (Exhibition and voting), Origami auction

Special Guests

Beth Johnson (USA)

<http://bethjohnsonorigami.com/>

Beth Johnson is an origami artist from Ann Arbor, Michigan. She has been folding paper for many years, but only recently began designing her own models in 2010. Beth spends as much time as she can working on origami, whether it be teaching classes, participating in exhibitions, working on private commissions, or designing new models.

Mark Bolitho (UK)

<http://www.creaselighting.co.uk/>

Mark Bolitho is the former Chair of the British Origami Society and now works full time as an Origami designer. In addition to undertaking commissions for advertisements and exhibitions, he has authored several books and kits about origami including The Origami Home, The Perfectly Mindful Origami series, Dr Who Origami, and Creaselighting.

